

Bifurcation diagram of a MEMS problem

Chi-Jen Wang

Department of Mathematics, National Chung Cheng University
E-mail: cjwang@ccu.edu.tw

Abstract

In this talk, we will introduce a way to determine the number of stationary solutions to a MEMS problem with fringing field. The critical value is determined by an implicit relation between two controlling parameters in this problem. We will show that this critical value exists.