

Set distance labeling on edges of diamond necklaces

葉光清
逢甲大學

Previously, we study a problem on assigning sets with conditions depending on the distance between vertices to vertices of a graph. This article will consider an analogous labeling which will assign sets to edges with given conditions on distance between edges. We present some results on a class of graphs called diamond necklaces.